

WOMEN'S TRANS NATIONAL GOLF ASSOCIATION

A Tax-Exempt Nonprofit Organization

Media Release

Wilma Gilliland, wmgill@charter.net
Cell (308) 241-0893

August 1, 2014

84th WOMENS TRANS NATIONAL GOLF ASSOCIATION CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL RESULTS

Conducted at The Members Club at Woodcreek, Elgin, South Carolina

2014 Champion: AUGUST KIM, St. Augustine, Florida
Trans Winner of the Trans George III trophy

The 72 hole stroke play CHAMPIONSHIP came to a close after a 2 and ½ hour weather delay in play during the final round. August Kim from St. Augustine, Florida, opened play with a first round 3-under 69 and held the lead throughout with scores of 73,70,72/284, 4-under par.

Caroline Inglis, Eugene, OR, finished 2under par 286 to take second place and the McDonald Runner-up trophy.

Casey Danielson, Osceola, Wisconsin, shot a final round of 5-under par 67 for the best round of the week and third place.

Filling out the top twelve:

- 293 Kathryn Miranda, Lexington, SC
- 293 Jordan Chael, Overland Park, KS
- 293 Andrea Wong, San Francisco, CA
- 295 Kelli Murphy, Elgin, SC
- 295 Sarah Schmelzel, Phoenix, AZ
- 296 Katelyn Dambaugh, Goose Creek, SC
- 296 Eunice Yi, Evans, GA
- 297 Giovana Maymon, Huxquilucan, Mexico
- 297 Aliea Clark, Carlsbad, CA

South Carolina girls cornered the market on holes-in-one. Two holes-in-one in the week: Kelli Murphy from Elgin, SC, holed a 5-iron on the 160 yard 15th hole. Earlier in the week Rachel Moore of Lexington, SC, holed her tee shot on the 194 yard 12th hole.