WOMEN'S TRANS NATIONAL GOLF ASSOCIATION

85TH Women's Amateur Championship

August 4 – August 7, 2015

The Yakima Country Club

Yakima, WA

News Release, August 5, 2015

Pauline Del Rosario had quite a day at the 85th Women's TRANS National Amateur Championship as she won the Medalist, the Junior Medalist, and helped to win the Howell Team Trophy with fellow team member from the Philippines, Mikhaela Fortuna (73-73).

Sixteen year old, Del Rosario originally from the Philippines now living in Sun City, CA, scored an impressive pair of 68's, 8-under par 136 to win the medalist honors after 2 days of qualifying. Northwestern University's Kacie Komoto from Honolulu, Hawaii made an impressive run at the title missing by one stroke when she shared honors with Lucia Gutierrez by tying the tournament low score of 67 on today's round.

There have been 20 sub-par rounds with nine scores in the 60's after 36-holes on this demanding 6,295 yard par 72 course. This is not a surprise when two thirds of the field has some of the best collegiate players in the country with 32 women's golf programs represented. Of course, the beautiful weather and course conditions have also contributed to this talented field's success.

A starting field of 71 golfers ranging in ages from teens to seniors was cut to 61 after 36-holes. The final 18-hole rounds will be played on Thursday and Friday at Yakima Country Club with tee times starting at 8:00 am each day.
